

Warm Up Question 1

Positive charge is placed on a straight stretchy cord. The cord is stretched to double its original length without adding or removing any charge. Explain as precisely as possible how the linear charge density changes during this process.

1. Lower.
2. Exactly half since  $\lambda = Q/L$ .